

Automated Driving Safety Assurance

Innovative homologation frame work

The innovative homologation frame work is being proposed to VAMD under the umbrella of GRVA by Japan. The frame work requires the real world traffic monitoring data so that the parameter range of the scenario can be rationally foreseeable. The global collaboration to define the realistic parameter range is important.

Evaluation Environment

